Structured Cabling Laborer

Are you a roll-up-the-sleeves kind of person that likes hands-on learning? Do you work well with everyone and do you work cooperatively? Interested in moving up the ladder as your experience evolves? If so, read on!

Located in Hillsboro, NH, with a travel footprint primarily throughout New Hampshire and Vermont, we're a diversified telecommunications company seeking an entry-level laborer for our Structured Cabling Department. Bring your good work ethics, curiosity, and willingness to learn so that you may hit the ground running once you join our team.

We offer competitive wages commensurate with experience and benefits upon eligibility. This opportunity is for individuals who will provide great customer service while learning cabling expertise.

You will begin by:

- ✓ Working with an experienced Installer dedicated to your success.
- ✓ Moving materials and equipment to work locations, and under direction, setting up the worksite.
- ✓ As appropriate, maintaining tools and equipment.
- ✓ Maintaining customer rapport by listening to and escalating concerns.
- ✓ Maintaining a safe work environment by following training, direction, and standards.
- ✓ Adhering to documentation timeframe and completion standards.

Required Education

- ✓ High School Diploma or GED Equivalent

Additional Desired Skills

- ✓ Ability to work within guided direction and supervision
- ✓ Ability to remain neat and organized
- ✓ Ability to work safely

Arcomm keeps people connected. We keep employees connected through the right fit.
